

*A NEW political party to refocus the agenda! "We don't want to be 'LIED TO', nor to be undervalued again."
-Allen E. Nutik, Party Leader*

No Room Before the Commission!

Montreal, Nov 27, 2007

For immediate release:

After hearing from bigots and racists all across Quebec over the past two months, the Bouchard Taylor Commission has declined to hear moderate, Canadian value testimony from AffiliationQuebec.

AffiliationQuebec has received an email from the Commission claiming a lack of time, so its testimony would not be heard.

AQ Leader, Allen Nutik demands a full explanation and reason from the Commission, and further called for a "a public apology" from Quebec Premier Jean Charest, who is responsible for the creation of this "ill advised circus" in the first place.

Nutik expressed concern that "this could be a direct, political attempt to muzzle AffiliationQuebec from presenting a responsible and reasonable testimony before the Quebec and Canadian publics."

Allen E. Nutik is leader of AffiliationQuebec a newly formed, Quebec political party focused on minority rights.
