"Quebec's three bye election results have brought good news for the Parti Quebecois and leader Pauline Marois, while signalling more ill wind for Quebec's Anglos and other minorities", says AffiliationQuebec Leader Allen Nutik.

"The collapse of support for the ADQ", according to Nutik, "implies a strengthening of fortunes for the Parti Quebecois, and further onslaughts against Quebec's already embattled minorities."

Considering that the Charest Liberals offer Quebec minorities no protection underscores the reason to support AffiliationQuebec as a valid voice for Quebec's Anglophones and other minorities.

Allen Nutik is leader of AffiliationQuebec, a newly formed, Quebec political party formed to actively pursue the full rights and interests of staunch Canadians living in the Province of Quebec.
