"Bonjour, indeed!" scoffs AffiliationQuebec Leader Allen Nutik in response to the latest, unnecessary 1.5 million dollar Quebec Government campaign, seen as a 'veiled threat' aimed at Anglophones and other minorities in advance of the probable forthcoming provincial election.

"It is a sign to Quebec nationalists," says Nutik, "that the Charest Liberals are both willing and able to toe a strong line in respect to further restricting English rights in the officially unilingual province.

"Les Quebecois would certainly be reviled if this was done to them," says Nutik, "so why is it acceptable to attempt to further intimidate minority Quebecers already subjected to always denied, but state sanctioned discrimination through abrogation of rights to language, signs, education, and access?"

Nutik hopes that Anglophones and other minorities will respond by saying: "Bonjour M. Charest, we will be voting for AffiliationQuebec for the restoration of our English and Canadian rights!"

AffiliationQuebec is an official political party formed to represent the full rights and interests of loyal Canadians living in the Province of Quebec.
